

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT ROHTAK
INTEGRATED PROGRAMME IN LAW (IPL)
LEGAL AID CLINIC

Aims and Objective:

The primary aim of the legal aid clinic at IIM Rohtak is to provide practical knowledge to the students of the IPL programme and aid the weaker sections of the society. The clinic will help the students get the understanding of the real world issues of the legal profession through practical implementation of the knowledge of the laws.

Activities:

At the legal aid clinic, the members will participate and organize awareness campaigns, conclaves, conferences, etc. in order to engage weaker sections and rural communities who can benefit from the practical approach and innovative perspective of the student community.

Some of the proposed activities of the legal aid clinic are Periodic Literacy Programmes, Legal Advices for the needy; Dispute Resolution, Knowledge sharing sessions like conferences, summits, and expert speaker sessions, Jail/Court visits, among others.

Composition of the Legal Aid Clinic:

1. Supervisor: Col. Tilak Bose
2. Faculty Members: Prof. Archit V. Tapar, Prof. Shweta Bahl
3. Student Members: To be decided
